An employee who is temporarily assigned to perform all the duties on a full-time basis of a position in a higher classification for a period of fifteen (15) consecutive working days or more shall be paid at the rate of the higher class, for all hours worked in the out of classification assignment.
- B. An employee who is temporarily assigned to perform the duties of a position in a class with the same or lower salary rate than the employee's regular appointment shall continue to receive the employee's regular rate of pay.
- C. The University utilizes Series and Classification Concepts for job classifications within the Skilled Crafts unit. The Series and Classification Concepts include information about the duties found in a job title, factors that influence the level at which a position is classified, and general qualifications for an employee assigned to a particular job classification.
- D. An employee may request, in writing, a review of the classification of the employee's position. The University will inform employees of the process for requesting a reclassification. The review shall be based on the employee's job description, as approved by the employee's supervisor, and the Series Classification and Concepts.
- E. The Union may provide input concerning a reclassification request(s) for the University's review.

ARTICLE 3

DEFINITIONS

A. Break in Service

A break in service is any separation from employment status. In addition, a break in service occurs, effective the last day on pay status, whether or not a separation form is submitted, when an employee is off pay status for four (4) complete, consecutive calendar months without an approved leave without pay, furlough, or temporary layoff.

A return to pay status from an approved leave without pay, furlough or temporary layoff, during a period of right to recall and preference for reemployment, or on the next working day following a separation, is not a break in service.

B. Address of Record

It shall be the responsibility of each employee to inform the University in writing or through the At Your Service website of his/her current home address and of any change in such address, and the information so provided shall constitute “the employee’s last known home address.”

C. Seniority

1. As used in Article 18, Layoff and Reduction in Time, seniority is defined as an employee’s most recent hire date in a staff career position.
2. As used in Article 9, Overtime and Article 14, Vacation, seniority is defined as time in the classification in a shop or work location.
3. As used in Article 11, Promotions/Transfers, seniority is defined as bargaining unit seniority for Inter-Departmental Transfers and departmental bargaining unit seniority for Intra-Departmental Transfers and Promotions.

D. Rates of Pay

1. Base rate of pay is the amount as listed in Article 43 - Wages.
2. Regular hourly rate of pay is the employee’s base rate of pay plus any shift differential and any Specialty Assignment pay.

E. Classifications

The term “classification” shall refer to the job title and title code listed in Article 1, Recognition.

F. Day

Unless otherwise indicated herein, the term “day” shall refer to a calendar day.

a. Qualifying service includes all time on pay status in one or more limited appointments. Pay status shall not include on-call or overtime hours.

b. Such conversion to career status shall be effective on the first day of the month following attainment of one thousand (1,000) hours of qualifying service.

c. Any break in service of one hundred twenty (120) days or longer shall result in a new twelve (12) month period for purposes of calculating the one thousand (1,000) hours of qualifying service.

Employees who have been serving in a limited appointment who then converted to a career appointment, shall receive ninety (90) calendar days of service credit toward the completion of the probationary period, provided the credited time was served in the same position/classification prior to the career appointment.

4. Conversion to career status, as provided in Section 3, above, shall not occur when:

a. the employee is hired as a replacement for another person who is on an extended leave; or

b. the position into which the employee is hired is not an “ongoing” position, in that the position is established and funded for less than a year at any percent of time; or

ARTICLE 8 HOURS OF WORK

A. Work Schedule

1. The workweek for employees shall be from 12:01 a.m. Sunday morning to 11:59 p.m. the following Saturday. Workweeks beginning and ending on a day other than the above may be scheduled by the University.

2. The standard work schedule for full-time employees shall be forty (40) hours per workweek, normally scheduled in shifts of either eight (8) or ten (10) hours, excluding a meal period, except for employees in continuous operations whose workweek may be altered to accommodate regular rotation changes in shifts.

B. Alternate Work Schedules

1. The University and Teamsters Local 2010 will review the feasibility of implementing alternate work schedules in those work units in which employees have indicated an interest in such schedules.

2. Nothing in this Section B. shall infringe upon, interfere with or diminish in any way the University's right to ensure adequate staffing and coverage to meet operational requirements and necessities in an efficient and orderly manner.

C. Meal Periods

1. Employees shall be permitted to take a meal period not to exceed thirty (30) minutes scheduled at or near the middle of the shift. Such meal period shall not count as time worked nor time on pay status.

2. An employee who is required to return to work during a scheduled meal period and whose meal period is not rescheduled shall not be paid for the meal period.

3. An employee required to stand watch and remain on the job at their work station for their full shift period shall be permitted to take a meal period, not to exceed thirty (30) minutes, when and as their duties permit. Such meal period shall be counted as time worked.

4. An employee, except a watch stander, who works a period of six (6) continuous hours or more from the last scheduled meal period, shall be permitted to take a meal period not to exceed thirty (30) minutes, if conditions permit.

5. The University agrees to reimburse employees who are traveling on official University business for meals, under the same terms and conditions as provided to non-represented staff employees who are not managerial, supervisory, or confidential.

D. Notice of Work Schedule

All work schedules showing employees' work shifts shall be prepared in written form and normally posted ninety (90) days in advance of the scheduled shift. Employees shall be notified of changes in work schedules at least ten (10) days in advance except for emergencies and/or to meet unusual operational requirements.

E. Rest Periods

1. A rest period not to exceed fifteen (15) minutes may be granted to employees for each half shift worked. Rest periods should, when possible, be taken at or near the midpoint of the shift.

2. The rest period shall not be taken at the beginning or end of a work period or combined with a meal period. Rest periods not granted or granted and not used shall not be accumulated. Rest periods shall be granted unless operational necessity requires that they be denied.

F. Clean Up Time

1. Employees shall be permitted a fifteen (15) minute clean up period at the end of each work shift, which shall include timekeeping duties.
2. A longer clean up period shall be granted when necessary upon the approval of the designated supervisor to employees whose job involves excessive contact with dirty or greasy tools, objects, or equipment.

G. Trading of Shifts

An employee may trade shifts only upon written request and approval of supervisor.

H. Premium Pay

1. Call-Back Time

a. Call-back refers only to those instances when an employee is ordered back to work without prior notice or in those instances when prior notice is given but the work begins at least three (3) hours after the completion of the regular work schedule.

b. An employee who is called back shall receive credit for a minimum of four (4) hours compensation at the employee's one and one-half (1 ½) times the regular hourly rate of pay.

2. On-Call

On-call is time during which an employee is not required to be at the work location or at the employee's residence but is required to restrict activities and be available for return to work. An employee placed on on-call shall be compensated at twenty-five (25) percent of their hourly rate for each hour on call. If called to work, the time actually worked is regular time or overtime as appropriate. An employee in on-call status is not eligible for minimum call-back payments.

3. Off-Shift Call and Text

An employee who is contacted off work hours to provide telephone or text support, subject to supervisor approval, shall be paid a minimum of one (1) hour of their hourly rate, subject to Article 9, Overtime, for the initial call or text. Thereafter, for subsequent calls taken on the same shift and/or day, the employee shall be paid for the actual time worked in fifteen (15) minute increments. This shall be treated as hours worked for all purposes under this agreement.

4. Time off Between Shifts

a. Each Maintenance Systems Operator, Maintenance Mechanic, Central Utilities Plant Operator/Co-Gen, and Central Utilities Plant Operator shall have a minimum of twelve (12) hours off before the start of their regularly scheduled shift. When an employee has less than twelve (12) hours off between such shifts, e.g., an employee who changes from the day shift to the graveyard shift because the employee is changing from an assigned shift to another assigned shift, the employee shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) times the regular hourly rate for all hours worked within the twelve (12) hours between the old and new assigned shift (e.g. an employee who has only seven and one-half (7 1/2) hours off between such shifts shall be paid one and one-half (1 1/2) times the regular hourly rate for the first four and one-half (4 1/2) hours of the shift).

- b. When an employee has less than ten (10) hours between the end of a “call back” work period and their next scheduled shift, the employee may request the option to:
 1. come in at their scheduled start time;
 2. use any accrued vacation or compensatory time off to allow for up to ten (10) hours of rest time before coming in to complete their regularly assigned shift; or
 3. adjust the regular assigned shift to begin ten (10) hours after the end of the “call back” work period.

I. Assignment to Watch Stander

When operationally feasible, assignment to a Watch Stander position shall be made by first asking for volunteers. If there are no volunteers, the assignment shall be made by inverse seniority.

ARTICLE 9 OVERTIME

Definition

1. Overtime shall be defined as those hours which are worked by an employee in excess of eight (8) hours in one (1) day (or regularly assigned shift) or forty (40) hours in one (1) week. For example, employees assigned a shift comprised of a four (4) day work week containing four (4) ten (10) hour work days shall be paid time and one half for all hours actually worked in excess of ten (10) hours per day or forty (40) hours per week.
2. Holiday(s), vacation day(s), jury duty, or witness leave, and day(s) on compensatory time off shall be included as hours worked for the purpose of determining those hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in one (1) week.

B. Compensation

1. All hours worked over eight (8) hours in one (1) day (or regularly assigned shift) or forty (40) hours in any one (1) week shall be compensated at the rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) times the regular hourly rate of pay. Shift differentials shall be included in the regular hourly rate of pay.
2. Unless the employee and the University agree otherwise, overtime will be paid. An employee may, upon hire and thereafter during the months of January and June, file a written indication of preference for either compensatory time off or pay with their immediate supervisor. The University shall grant the preference indicated. If no preference is indicated to the department in the annual January and June periods for changes, the employee’s previous election shall continue.

3. No more than one hundred twenty (120) hours of overtime which require compensation at the time and one-half (1/2) rate (that is, one hundred eighty (180) hours of compensatory time off) may be accumulated. An employee shall be paid for hours of overtime which exceed this limit.

4. Watch Standers may, upon the employee's request, accumulate up to forty (40) hours of compensatory time off.

C. Scheduling Compensatory Time Off

1. Compensatory time off shall be requested by the employee and approved by management and taken within two (2) six (6) month bank periods (January 1 - June 30; July 1-December 31). Banked compensatory time off which is not paid or scheduled within the banked period in which it is earned or the banked period following that in which it is earned shall be paid in the next regularly scheduled pay period.

2. When compensatory time off is taken or paid, it is compensated at the employee's current rate of pay.

3. Upon separation from employment, compensatory time off accrued at the time and a half rate shall be paid at the employee's current rate of pay or at the employee's average rate of pay for the last three (3) years, whichever is higher. Additionally, any accrued compensatory time off shall be paid to the employee when the employee leaves the bargaining unit, but remains employed by the University.

4. Employees may request use of compensatory time off; such requests will be granted subject to the operational needs of the University. Use of compensatory time off requires prior approval in accordance with departmental policy. The University may require employees to take compensatory time off.

D. Scheduling of Overtime

1. Upon the University's determination there is a need for overtime or additional work, the University will notify the employee(s) selected as soon as practicable that overtime must be worked or the employee must work beyond their regularly assigned shift.

2. An employee may be permitted to decline such assignments under special circumstances. However, wherever it is necessary to meet the operational requirements of the University, the University shall have the right to require the performance of such work, including requiring employees to remain at work after conclusion of their shift until relief is available.

3. If an employee is ordered to work planned overtime and if the employee has received less than twenty-four (24) hours advance notice, the employee shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) times the regular hourly rate of pay for any such hours worked.

E. Distribution of Overtime

1. The University shall post a monthly and year to date record of overtime distribution in each shop or work location.

2. Unplanned Overtime

Overtime shall be assigned based upon the employee's ability to perform the work and operational needs of the University.

3. Planned Overtime

To the extent possible, in accordance with the provisions of section E.1., planned overtime shall be offered to the most senior employee, then the next most senior and so on, until all employees in the shop or work location have been offered overtime, at which time, the most senior employee is again offered an overtime assignment. For the purpose of this section, seniority shall be based on the employee's time in the classification in a shop or work location.

F. No Pyramiding of Overtime

There shall be no compounding/pyramiding of overtime payments.

G. Overtime Meals

When an employee's regularly assigned shift is extended more than three (3) hours, and that period extends past the employee's regular meal time, he/she shall be reimbursed for actual meal expenses up to a maximum of fifteen dollars ($15.00). A person who has been called in to work overtime, or works planned overtime, is not entitled to be paid for a meal, even though this overtime requires them to work past a regular meal time.

ARTICLE 10 PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

- A. Performance Evaluation is a constructive process to acknowledge the performance of an employee. An employee's evaluation shall be sufficiently specific to inform and guide the employee in the performance of their duties. The performance evaluation is not in and of itself a disciplinary procedure.
- B. The performance of each career employee shall be evaluated at least once a year, in accordance with a process established by the University. Performance evaluations shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.
- C. If an employee does not receive an evaluation of performance as provided in the above section, they may request that an evaluation be done. Upon request, a performance evaluation shall be provided within thirty (30) calendar days. Time limits may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. If not provided, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the employee performed satisfactorily.
- D. Disputes arising from this Article may be processed under the Grievance Procedure of this Agreement, Article 21, but shall not be subject to the Arbitration Procedure, Article 22, of this Agreement.
- E. The employee may be permitted to have their Shop Steward present at their annual Performance Evaluation meeting upon request by the employee.

ARTICLE 11
PROMOTIONS/TRANSFERS

A. Definitions

1. A “transfer” is the change of an employee from one position to another which is in a classification having the same salary range maximum.
2. A “promotion” is the change of an employee from one position to another position which is in a classification having a higher salary range maximum.
3. A position “vacancy” exists when the University determines that there is an open, active position for which recruitment is to be undertaken.

B. Recruitment

When any vacancy or new career position is available it shall be made known to employees via an electronic recruitment system or other means employed by the University. The University may limit the recruitment to internal applicants.

C. Selection

The University shall have responsibility for the selection of an individual to fill a vacant position. To assist in making such selections, the University may seek the input of bargaining unit employees from the trade being recruited or bargaining unit employees who participate on Interview Panels, if any.

D. Promotions

Employees desiring to compete for promotional opportunities shall meet the minimum qualifications for the position or classification in which they are interested. The applicant(s) (internal or external) judged to be best qualified for the open position(s) will be selected for those positions. In those cases where qualifications are essentially equal, departmental bargaining unit seniority will be the deciding factor for selection provided that affirmative action guidelines have been met.

E. Intra-Departmental Transfers

If an opening within another area of an employee's current department of assignment is posted, any qualified employee may request in writing via e-mail to the supervisor by the posting deadline, a lateral transfer to that area. If an employee requests such a transfer and possesses the skills and other qualifications required, the transfer will be affected after an assessment of skills and qualifications. A job application or background check (Live Scan or equivalent) will not be required. In those cases where qualifications are essentially equal, departmental bargaining unit seniority will be the factor for selection if Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) guidelines have been met. The above process will be followed until any and all positions have been filled. Any open position, which results from such a transfer, will then be posted. This internal process may run concurrently with the standard external recruitment process for department vacancies, however, all internal transfers will be determined prior to offering a position to an external candidate. Employees may not request a transfer within a rolling twelve (12) month period.

F. Inter-Departmental Transfers

Employees who desire to compete for lateral transfer opportunities to a position in another department shall apply to the open requisition and meet the minimum qualifications for the position or classification in which they are interested. Employees who meet the minimum qualifications for the position or classification shall be interviewed by the department. The applicant(s) (internal or external) judged to be best qualified for open position(s) will be selected for those positions. In those cases where qualifications are essentially equal, the University shall first consider providing transfer opportunities to qualified career employee applicants, including considering their work performance history and experience. A background check (Live Scan or equivalent) may be required in the following circumstances: a background check will be required when an applicant has no current background check on file or the applicant is applying to a position at the medical center. Among qualified career employee applicants whose qualifications are essentially equal, bargaining unit seniority will be the factor for selection provided that OFCCP guidelines have been met.

G. Interviews

Employees who are scheduled for a job interview for positions at UCSD shall be granted reasonable time off with pay as determined by the University, if the interview has been scheduled during the employee's scheduled work time.

H. Disputes

Disputes arising from this Article may only be reviewed under the Grievance Procedure of this Agreement, Article 21, but shall not be subject to the Arbitration Procedure, Article 22, of this Agreement.

I. Inter-Campus Transfers

Bargaining unit employees who transfer to another UC campus are deemed to be continuing their employment with the University of California. Upon request from a transferring employee, UCSD will provide assistance with the transfer of accrued vacation, sick leave and UCRP benefits if applicable, in accordance with University policies.

ARTICLE 12 HOLIDAYS

Employees are eligible for holiday pay in accordance with the nature of their appointments and their periods on pay status during the month in which the holiday occurs.

A. Eligibility for Holiday Pay

1. A full-time employee in a career position shall receive holiday pay if on pay status on the employee's last scheduled workday before the holiday and on the first scheduled workday following the holiday.

b. An employee who fails to return to work from a leave of absence on the approved anticipated date of return or any approved extension shall be considered to have abandoned their job, if such failure to return exceeds five (5) consecutive working days of the anticipated return date.

c. An employee who has exhausted their original leave entitlement and who has been granted additional leave under another section of this Article, shall be reinstated in accordance with the provisions of the section under which the additional leave was granted. The employee shall be advised in writing of their reinstatement rights, at the time the additional leave is granted.

B. Pay for Family Care and Bonding

1. General Provisions

a. In order to support employees' need to take leave to care for their family members, the University offers eligible employees Pay for Family Care and Bonding (PFCB), which is a partial income replacement option for up to eight workweeks per calendar year that may be available to employees taking Family and Medical Leave (FML) as set forth below.

b. In order to be eligible for PFCB, an employee must be on an approved block Family and Medical Leave (FML) taken for one of the qualifying reasons below, and the employee must be taking that leave in a block of a minimum of one workweek.

c. Family and Medical Leaves that qualify for the PFCB option are those leaves taken under the FMLA and/or CFRA for parental bonding, to care for a family member with a serious health condition, for Military Caregiver Leave, or for Qualifying Exigency Leave. PFCB is not an option available during any other type of leave.

d. If an employee elects to use PFCB for a particular qualifying FML block leave rather than using paid leave accruals or taking the leave without pay, the employee must continue to use PFCB until they either exhaust their full eight workweeks of PFCB for the calendar year or that qualifying FML block leave ends. If their leave ends before they have used the full eight workweeks of PFCB for the calendar year, the remainder is available to use during a qualifying FML block leave later in the calendar year.

e. An employee may not use any paid leave accruals (e.g., vacation, sick leave, PTO, CTO, as applicable, while receiving PFCB.

2. PFCB Calculation

The PFCB option provides pay calculated at seventy percent (70%) of an employee's eligible earnings.

a. Eligible Earnings. Eligible earnings include an employee's base salary payable through the University. Eligible earnings do not include (if applicable) bonuses, perquisites, overtime pay, out of classification pay, shift differentials, uniform allowances, certification pay, specialty pay, emergency response pay, charge differentials, on-call differentials, or any pay that is received in addition to that of the employee's regular appointment, and any other additional cash compensation received that is more than 100% of the base salary of the full-time equivalent of the employee's regular position.

b. Appointments Established at a Fixed Percentage.

If the employee has an appointment established at a fixed percentage, PFCB is based on the salary rate in effect during the employee's leave.

c. Appointments Established at a Variable Percentage.

If the employee has an appointment established at a variable percentage, eligible earnings are an average of the employee's eligible earnings for the three calendar months (for an employee paid on a monthly basis) or six pay periods (for an employee paid on a biweekly basis) immediately prior to the period in which the leave begins, excluding periods with furlough or approved leave without pay. This average is calculated as follows:

I. For an employee paid on a bi-weekly basis, the sum of hours paid in the six pay periods immediately prior to the period in which the leave begins is divided by 12 to determine the average hours worked per week. The average hours worked per week is then multiplied by 0.7 to determine the number of hours per week the employee is to be paid at 70%.

II. For an employee paid on a monthly basis, the sum of the time paid in the three calendar months immediately prior to the period in which the leave begins is divided by 3 to determine the average time worked per month. The average time worked per month is then multiplied by 0.7 to determine the time per month the employee is to be paid at 70%.

If the consecutive three months or six bi-weekly pay periods immediately preceding the beginning of the leave cannot be used due to furlough or approved leave without pay, the look-back period may be extended up to, but no longer than, one year prior to the beginning of the leave, using the most recent applicable pay periods.

3. Pay and Benefit Considerations

a. Taxability and Deductions

PFCB is considered taxable wages. An employee's normal deductions are taken from PFCB.

b. Vacation and Sick Accruals. An employee accrues vacation leave based on type of appointment, years of qualifying service and hours on pay status. An employee accrues sick leave based on hours on pay status. ~~However,~~ Because an employee is paid 70 percent of eligible earnings when receiving PFCB, vacation and sick accruals are calculated as if the employee is on pay status for 70 percent of their normal hours.

c. Employment and Service Credit. Employment service credit is used to determine years of qualifying service for an employee's vacation accrual rate and for eligibility for service awards. Employees accrue one month of employment service credit for each month in which they are on pay status at least 50 percent time. If receiving PFCB results in a pay status of less than 50 percent in a given month, an employee will not receive employment service credit for that month.

d. Retirement Service Credit. Retirement service credit (i.e., service earned as a UCRP member or UC Defined Contribution Savings Choice participant) is earned based upon an employee's covered compensation and their full-time equivalent compensation from a UCRP-eligible appointment. While receiving PFCB, an employee will continue to make required contributions to retirement plans. An eligible employee who is receiving PFCB only will receive 70 percent of the retirement service credit they would have earned in their regular and normal appointment.

e. Benefits. Health and welfare benefits deductions will be taken from PFCB in accordance with the employee's benefit elections. Receiving PFCB does not, in itself, affect benefits status or eligibility. However, benefits regulations affecting return to pay status after a leave without pay will apply if an employee returns to pay status by receiving PFCB.

C. Personal Leave

1. An employee in a career position may be granted a personal leave for the employee's convenience, subject to the operational needs and requirements of the University. In special situations, a personal leave for temporary employment outside the University may be approved provided that the outside work is in the interest of public service and/or will be beneficial to the University upon the employee's return.

2. A personal leave may also be granted for an extended illness or to care for a newborn or newly adopted child (see DE.3.a.), need to provide care for members of the family, and education which will directly increase job effectiveness.

3. A Department Head may approve a personal leave for a period not in excess of six (6) months. The Chancellor, upon recommendation of a Department Head, may approve extension of a personal leave for a total leave of not more than twelve (12) months, unless otherwise required by law.

D. Pregnancy Disability Leave

1. General Provisions

a. An employee disabled on account of pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions, is entitled to a Pregnancy Disability Leave in accordance with the provisions of this Article. Pregnancy Disability Leave may consist of leave with or without pay. The employee may elect to use as accrued sick leave, accrued vacation leave, and/or compensatory time off before taking leave without pay. The employee shall provide written notice of the need for leave as soon as they become aware of it and, at a minimum, thirty (30) days in advance if possible.

b. As an alternative to or in addition to Pregnancy Disability Leave, when requested by a pregnant employee and medically advisable according to their healthcare provider, the University will provide (1) reasonable accommodation, (2) modified job duties, and/or (3) a temporary transfer to a less strenuous or hazardous position as stated in this Article.

2. Certification

a. When an employee requests a reasonable accommodation, transfer, or leave due to pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical condition, in good faith, the University may, in its sole non-grievable discretion, require that the employee's request be supported by a medical certification issued by the employee's health care provider.

b. When a medical certification is requested in connection with the employee's request for a reasonable accommodation or transfer, it shall contain the following: (1) a description of the requested accommodation or transfer, (2) a statement describing the medical advisability of the requested reasonable accommodation or transfer, and (3) the date on which the need for reasonable accommodation or transfer became or will become medically advisable and the estimated duration of the need for the reasonable accommodation or transfer.

c. Failure to provide certification for reasonable accommodation, transfer, or leave within the requested time period or as soon as reasonably possible under the circumstances may result in delay of the leave or accommodation until the required certification is provided.

d. The University may, at its sole non-grievable discretion, require that an employee returning to work immediately following Pregnancy Disability Leave provide a written medical release prior to returning to work.

3. Time Periods

a. During the period when an employee is disabled because of verified pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical condition the employee is entitled to and the University shall grant a Pregnancy Disability leave of up to four (4) months for such purposes. Pregnancy Disability Leave may also be used for prenatal care. If the employee's pregnancy-related/childbearing medical disability continues beyond four (4) months, a personal leave of absence may be granted, for a total leave of absence not to exceed six (6) months, unless otherwise required by law.

b. If an employee on approved Pregnancy Disability Leave is also eligible for leave under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), up to twelve (12) workweeks of such leave shall run concurrently under the Pregnancy Disability Leave Law (PDLL) and the FMLA. Additionally, the employee may also be entitled, if eligible, to up to twelve (12) workweeks of FML under the California Family Rights Act (CFRA) for any covered reason except pregnancy, childbirth, or a pregnancy-related medical condition provided the employee has not exhausted their CFRA leave entitlement for that leave year. When Parental Leave is granted under Section E., Family Medical Leave, the total of Parental Leave and Pregnancy Disability Leave, when combined, shall not exceed seven (7) months in the leave year.

4. Return from a Pregnancy/Disability Leave

An employee who has been granted a Pregnancy Disability Leave shall be returned to the same job provided the employee returns to work immediately upon termination of the Pregnancy Disability Leave and provided such return is within four (4) months of the date on which the Pregnancy Disability Leave commenced. If the same job was abolished during the leave, the employee shall be entitled to a comparable position if the employee would have been entitled to the comparable position if they had been continuously working. If a comparable position at the same location is not available, the employee will be afforded the same considerations afforded other employees who are laid off or terminated. An employee who is also granted Parental Bonding Leave under Section E. Family and Medical Leave, shall be returned to work in accordance with this Article.

5. Continuation of Health Benefits

An employee on Pregnancy Disability Leave shall be entitled to continue participation in health plan coverage (medical, dental, and optical) as set forth in Section E.4.b. below, whether or not the Pregnancy Disability Leave also qualifies as FML under the FMLA. Other group insurance coverages and retirement benefits shall be continued in accordance with the provisions of the applicable group insurance and retirement system regulations.

6. Transfer and Other Reasonable Accommodations as Alternatives to or in Addition to Pregnancy Disability Leave

a. Transfer at the Request of the Employee. The University shall temporary transfer a pregnant employee to a less strenuous or hazardous position upon the request of the employee when such transfer is medically advisable according to the employee's health care provider, if the transfer can be reasonably accommodated. For the purpose of this section, a temporary transfer includes a temporary modification of the employee's own position to make it less strenuous or hazardous. A temporary transfer under this section is considered time worked and shall not be counted toward an employee's entitlement of up to four (4) months of Pregnancy Disability Leave, unless the employee is also taking leave on a reduced work schedule or an intermittent leave scheduled. When the employee's health care provider certifies that the transfer is no longer medically advisable, the University shall return the employee to their same position or a comparable position in accordance with Section E.4 of this Article.

b. Transfer to Reasonably Accommodate Employee's Need for Intermittent or Reduced Schedule Leave. When the employee's health care provider states that it is medically advisable for the employee to take Pregnancy Disability Leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis, the University may, at its sole non-grievable discretion, transfer the employee temporarily to an available alternative position that meets the needs of the employee, provided the employee meets the qualifications of the alternative position. Any alternative position shall have the equivalent rate of pay and benefits, and shall better accommodate the employee's leave requirements than her regular position. Only the time actually spent on the intermittent or reduced schedule leave shall be counted towards the employee's entitlement of four (4) months in any twelve (12) month period. When the employee's health care provider certifies that the intermittent or reduced scheduled leave is no longer medically advisable, the University shall return the employee to their same position or a comparable position in accordance with Section E.4 of this Article.

c. Other Reasonable Accommodations. If the employee's health care provider certifies that reasonable accommodations other than transfer and/or leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis are medically advisable, the University shall engage in the interactive process with the employee to identify and implement the reasonable accommodation(s) that are appropriate under the circumstances.

7. Reduced Schedule/Intermittent Leave

When medically necessary, and supported by medical certification, the University shall grant an employee Pregnancy Disability Leave on a reduced work schedule or on an intermittent basis including absences of less than one (1) day. Only the time actually spent on the intermittent or reduced leave schedule shall be counted towards the employee's entitlement of up to four (4) months of Pregnancy Disability Leave per pregnancy.

E. Family and Medical Leave

1. An employee who is eligible for Family and Medical Leave (FML) and has not exhausted their FML entitlement for the leave year, as discussed below, may take FML for any of the following six reasons, as described in greater detail in this Section below.

- a. Due to the employee's own serious health condition.
- b. To care for a family member with a serious health condition.
- c. As Pregnancy Disability Leave.
- d. As Parental Bonding Leave.
- e. As Military Caregiver Leave.
- f. As Qualifying Exigency Leave.

2. Eligibility

Employees who have at least twelve (12) months of University service (all prior University service, including service with the Department of Energy Laboratories, shall be used to calculate the twelve (12) month service requirement) and have worked at least one thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) hours (actual hours worked) during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the commencement of the leave are eligible for and shall be granted up to a total of twelve (12) workweeks of FML in a calendar year, except as otherwise provided in this Article.

3. Definitions

- a. Child, for the purpose of FML means a biological child, adopted child, foster child, stepchild, legal ward, or child for whom the employee stands in loco parentis, provided that the child is either under eighteen (18) years of age or incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability.
- b. A Parent, for the purpose of FML means a biological parent, foster parent, adoptive parent, stepparent, legal guardian, or individual who stood in loco parentis to the employee when the employee was a child.
- c. Spouse means a partner in marriage or registered domestic partnership.
- d. Serious health condition means an illness, injury (including, but not limited to, on- the-job injuries), impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either inpatient care or continuing treatment, including, but not limited to, treatment for substance abuse.
 - i. “Inpatient care” means a stay in a hospital, hospice, or residential health care facility, any subsequent treatment in connection with such inpatient care, or any period of incapacity. A person is considered an “inpatient” when a health care facility formally admits them to the facility with the expectation that they will remain at least overnight and occupy a bed, even if it later develops that such person can be discharged or transferred to another facility and does not actually remain overnight.
 - ii. “Incapacity” means the inability to work, attend school, or perform other regular daily activities due to a serious health condition, its treatment, or the recovery that it requires.
 - iii. “Continuing treatment” means ongoing medical treatment or supervision by a health care provider, as defined below.
- e. Health care provider means an individual who is licensed in California, or is duly licensed in another State or jurisdiction, to hold either a physician's certificate, surgeon's certificate or an osteopathic physician's certificate, or who is duly licensed as a podiatrist, dentist, clinical psychologist, optometrist, chiropractor (limited to treatment of the spine to correct a subluxation as demonstrated in x-ray to exist), physician assistant, nurse practitioners or nurse midwife performing within the scope of their practice as defined under State law, a Christian Science practitioner or any health provider that the employee's plan carrier recognizes for purposes of payment.
- f. Equivalent position is a position that has the same pay, benefits, and working conditions, including the same or substantially similar duties and responsibilities, which entail substantially equivalent skill, effort, responsibility, and authority.
- g. One thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) hours of Actual Service means time actually spent at work and does not include any paid time off including, but not limited to, an employee's use of accrued vacation, compensatory time, or sick leave, nor does it include time paid for holidays not worked or time spent in unrestricted on- call status. For employees granted military leave, all hours that would have been worked had the employee not been ordered to military duty shall be used to calculate the one thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) actual hours of work requirement.

4. General Provisions

a. Time Periods

1. FML shall not exceed twelve (12) workweeks in a calendar year unless it is used for Pregnancy Disability Leave or Military Caregiver Leave. In the event University policy and/or State or Federal law result in a different date of commencement for this twelve (12) month period, the commencement period for employees in this bargaining unit shall conform to the commencement date generally applicable to other University employees. If the employee is taking FML as Pregnancy Disability Leave, the employee shall be eligible for FML for the period of actual disability up to four (4) months per pregnancy. If the employee is taking FML for Military Caregiver Leave, the employee shall be eligible for up to twenty-six (26) workweeks in a single (12) month leave period.

a) For the purposes of FML only, twelve (12) workweeks are equivalent to four-hundred eighty (480) hours of scheduled work for full-time career and floater employees who are normally scheduled for an eight (8) hours per day, five (5) days per workweek (8/40) schedule.

b) Hourly Conversion for Part-time or Alternatively Scheduled Employees. For employees who work part-time or a schedule other than an 8/40, the number of FML hours to which the employee is eligible shall be adjusted in accordance with their normal weekly work schedule. An employee whose schedule varies from week to week is eligible for a pro-rated amount of FML based on their hours worked over the previous twelve (12) months preceding the leave.

c) Any leave taken by an eligible employee that qualifies as FML (including leave taken for a Work-Incurred Inquiry or Illness under Article 30) will be designated as such by the University and will be counted against the employee's leave entitlement whether the leave is paid or unpaid. Such deductions will be made in increments that correspond to the amount of leave time actually taken by the employee (which could be weeks, days, hours, and/or partial hours).

2. Forms in which FML May be Taken

a. FML generally may be taken as a block leave or, in certain circumstances discussed below, on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis.

b. When medically necessary and supported by medical certification, the University shall grant an eligible employee's request for FML Medical Leave for the employee's serious health condition, to care for a family member with a serious health condition, as Pregnancy Disability Leave, or as Military Caregiver Leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule including absences of less than one (1) day. Only the time actually spent on the intermittent or reduced leave schedule shall be counted towards the employee's FML entitlement.

c. An employee may take FML for Qualifying Exigency Leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis.

d. For requests to take FML as Parental Bonding Leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis, see Section E.4.h.

e. When the employee requests an intermittent leave or a reduced work schedule because the employee or their family member is undergoing planned medical treatment for a serious health condition, the University may, at its discretion, require the employee to transfer temporarily to an available alternate position for which the employee is qualified and which better accommodates recurring periods of leave than the employee's regular position. Such transfer shall have equivalent pay and terms and conditions of employment, but does not need to have equivalent duties.

b. Continuation of Health Benefits

An eligible employee who is on an approved FML Leave shall be entitled to continue participation in health plan coverage (medical, dental, and optical) as follows:

1. When the employee is on FML that runs concurrently under the FMLA and CRFA: Continued coverage for up to twelve (12) workweeks in a calendar year.
2. When the employee is on a Military Caregiver Leave under the FMLA: Continued coverage for up to twenty-six (26) workweeks in a single twelve (12) month leave period.
3. When the employee is on a Qualifying Exigency Leave under the FMLA: Continued coverage for up to twelve (12) workweeks in a calendar year.
4. When the employee is on a Pregnancy Disability Leave under the California Pregnancy Disability Leave Law, regardless of whether any of the leave runs concurrently under the FMLA: Continued coverage for up to four (4) months in a twelve (12) month period. If any of the Pregnancy Disability Leave runs concurrently under the FMLA, the continued coverage provided for that portion of the leave will count towards the employee's FMLA entitlement for up to twelve (12) workweeks of such coverage in a calendar year.

5. When the employee is on FML under the CFRA that does not run concurrently under the FMLA (e.g., Parental Bonding Leave after an employee's FMLA entitlement has been exhausted): Continued coverage for up to twelve (12) workweeks in a calendar year.

c. Notice

1. If the employee learns of the event giving rise to the need for FML more than thirty (30) days in advance, the employee shall provide the University with notice as soon as the employee learns of the need for leave, and at a minimum, thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of the leave, if practicable.

2. If the need for leave is foreseeable due to a planned medical treatment of the employee (due to the employee's serious health condition or pregnancy disability) or the planned medical treatment of the employee's family member with a serious health condition, the employee shall make reasonable efforts to schedule the treatment so as to avoid undue disruption to the University's operations.

3. If the need for leave is unforeseeable or actually occurs prior to the anticipated date of a foreseeable leave, the employee shall provide the University with as much advance notice as is practicable, and at a minimum, within two (2) working days after learning of the event, except in extraordinary circumstances where such notice is not feasible.

4. An employee who fails to give thirty (30) days' notice for a foreseeable leave, with no reasonable basis for the delay, may have their FML delayed until thirty (30) days after the date on which the employee provides notice.

5. The University shall determine whether the employee is eligible and qualifies for FML and shall, within five (5) days of that determination, notify the employee, in writing, when the leave is designated or provisionally designated as FML. The duration and terms of the leave and the date of return are determined when the leave is granted. Extensions, if any, up to an aggregate of twelve (12) workweeks in the leave year may be granted in a calendar year (or

(26) workweeks in a single twelve (12) month period if FML is being taken as Military Caregiver Leave or four (4) months per pregnancy if FML is taken as Pregnancy Disability Leave). If any employee's need for leave continues after their FML entitlement has been exhausted, the employee may be eligible for leave provided as a reasonable accommodation of a disability in accordance with this Article (if FML was taken due to the employee's own serious health condition or as Pregnancy Disability Leave) or may request a Personal Leave in accordance with Article 16, Section C.

d. Certification and Other Supporting Documentation

1. When leave is requested for the employee's own serious health condition, the University may, at its discretion, require that an employee's request for FML be supported by a written certification issued to the University by the employee's health care provider. Such request to the employee shall be in writing. The certification may be provided on a form given to the employee by the University and shall, regardless of the format, in addition to certifying that the employee has a serious health condition, include the following:

- a. a statement as to whether the employee is unable to perform any one or more of the essential assigned functions of the position;
- b. the date, if known, on which the serious health condition commenced; the probable duration of the condition; and the employee's probable date of return;
- c. whether it will be medically necessary for the employee to take leave intermittently or to work on a reduced leave schedule, and if so, the probable duration of such schedule; and
- d. if the condition will result in periodic episodes of incapacity, an estimate of the duration and frequency of episodes of incapacity.

2. When a leave of absence is requested for the serious health condition of the employee's family member, the University shall require that an employee's request for leave be supported by written certification issued by the family member's health care provider. When certification is required by the University, such requirement shall be submitted to the employee in writing. Certification may be provided by the employee on a form given to the employee by the University and shall, regardless of the format, in addition to certifying that the employee's family member has a serious health condition, include:

- a. a statement that the serious health condition of the family member warrants the participation of the employee to provide supervision or care (which includes psychological comfort) during a period of the treatment or incapacity;

b. whether the employee's family member will need supervision or care over a continuous period of time, intermittently or on a reduced schedule basis; the leave schedule the employee will need in order to provide that care; and the probable duration that the employee is needed to provide care; and

c. In addition, the employee will be required to certify either on the form or separately the care they will provide to the family member and the estimated duration of the period of care.

3. Confirmation of Family Relationship. The University may, at its sole non-grievable discretion, require that an employee complete a Declaration of Relationship form to certify his/her relationship with the family member when the employee is requesting FML to care for a family member with a serious health condition or to certify their relationship with the child when the employee is requesting FML as Parental Bonding Leave. The employee's failure to provide a completed Declaration of Relationship form within fifteen (15) calendar days of the University's written request may, at the sole non-grievable discretion of the University, result in discontinuance of the leave until the required documentation is provided or, if the leave has not yet begun, a delay in the start of the leave. If the employee fails to provide the completed Declaration of Relationship form within a reasonable period of time as requested, FML will be denied.

4. Should the University have a good faith, objective reason to doubt the validity of the employee's medical certification for their own serious health condition, the University may, at its discretion, require the employee to obtain a second medical opinion from a second health care provider chosen by the University. Should the second medical opinion differ from the employee's own health care provider, the University may require a third medical opinion from a third health care provider jointly approved by the University and the employee. The University shall bear the cost of the second and third opinions, and the third opinion shall be final. If a second or third opinion is sought, the University shall provide the employee with a copy of the opinion at no cost to the employee, upon request.

5. If additional leave is requested upon expiration of the leave granted, or should the circumstances of the leave change, the University may, at its discretion, require the employee to obtain recertification. Such requests for subsequent certification shall be in writing.

6. If certification or recertification is required, the employee shall return the certification within fifteen (15) calendar days of the University's request, where practicable. Failure to provide certification for a foreseeable leave within the requested time may result in the leave being delayed until the required certification is received. Failure to provide certification for an unforeseeable leave within the requested time may result in the delay of continuation of the leave until the required certification is provided. If the employee fails to provide a completed certification, the employee shall be given fifteen (15) calendar days to perfect the certification. Failure to perfect an incomplete certification may result in denial of the leave or denial of continuation of the leave. If the employee fails to provide a certification/recertification or a completed certification/recertification and the leave has not begun, the request for FML will be denied. If the leave has begun, the leave may, at the University's discretion, be discontinued; however, any leave taken is not FML.

7. An employee who has been granted FML due to their own health conditions shall be returned to the same or an equivalent position when the employee has been medically released to perform the essential assigned functions of their job. Failure to provide a medical release to return to work may result in the delay of reinstatement until after the employee submits the required medical release certification.

e. Use of Accrued Paid Leave

1. Family Medical Leave is unpaid, except for the use of sick and/or the use of accrued vacation, as provided in this article.

2. An employee on approved FML to care for a family member with a serious health condition may elect to use accrued vacation time and/or compensatory time off before taking leave without pay. If the employee's vacation leave accrual is at maximum, the employee will be required to use at least ten (10) percent of the vacation leave credit prior to taking leave without pay. Up to thirty (30) days of accrued sick leave per year may be substituted for unpaid leave when FML is taken for this purpose.

3. An employee on an approved FML for Parental Bonding Leave may elect to use accrued vacation time and/or compensatory time off before taking leave without pay. If the employee's vacation leave accrual is at maximum, the employee will be required to use at least ten (10) percent of the vacation leave credit prior to taking leave without pay.

4. An employee on FML leave for their own serious health condition shall use accrued sick leave in accordance with the University's disability plan or as provided under Article 30, Work Incurred Injury or Illness. Employees not eligible for University disability benefits who are not on leave due to a work- incurred illness or injury shall use all accrued sick leave prior to taking leave without pay. An employee may elect to use accrued compensatory time off or accrued vacation before taking leave without pay. However, if the employee's vacation leave accrual is at maximum, the employee will be required to use at least ten (10) percent of the vacation leave credit prior to taking leave without pay.

f. Return from FML

1. Required Notice and Documentation

a. The employee shall provide their employing department reasonable notice of their anticipated return to work.

b. An employee returning from FML for their own serious health condition must provide a written medical release to return to work prior to returning to work. For returns after Pregnancy Disability Leave, see Section D.4.

c. The employee who has been medically released to perform the essential assigned functions of their job shall be returned in accordance with the provisions of Section E.4.g. below.

d. Failure to provide a medical release to return to work may result in the delay of reinstatement until the employee submits the required medical release certification.

g. Reinstatement Rights

An employee granted FML for any reason other than Pregnancy Disability Leave and returns within twelve (12) workweeks of the initiation of the leave (or within twenty-six (26) workweeks if the FML was taken as Military Caregiver Leave), shall be reinstated to the same or an equivalent position upon return from the leave. For an employee's return to work rights after Pregnancy Disability Leave, see Section D.4. If the position has been abolished or otherwise affected by layoff and an equivalent position is not available, the employee shall be afforded the same considerations which would have been afforded had the employee been working when the position was abolished or affected by layoff. A casual employee granted FML is not entitled to reinstatement to their position if the employee's appointment ending date or predetermined date of separation occurs before the scheduled return date.

h. Parental Bonding Leave

An eligible employee is entitled to FML to bond with their child after the child's birth or placement with the employee for adoption or foster care, and to attend to matters related to the birth, adoption or placement of the child. Leave granted for such bonding purposes must be concluded within twelve (12) months following the child's birth or placement with the employee. The University will grant Parental Bonding Leave subject to the limitations described below. If requested and taken immediately following a Pregnancy Disability Leave, an employee eligible for leave under the FMLA/CFRA at the beginning of her Pregnancy Disability Leave shall be granted a Parental Bonding Leave for up to twelve (12) workweeks provided that the employee has not exhausted her leave entitlement under the FMLA and/or CFRA for that leave year.

1. Requests for Parental Bonding Leave

The employee shall request Parental Bonding Leave sufficiently in advance, if possible, of the expected birth date of the child or placement of a child for adoption or foster care to allow the University to plan for the absence of the employee. The anticipated date of return from Parental Bonding Leave shall be set at the time such leave commences; or if requested, in conjunction with a Pregnancy Disability Leave, shall be set at the time such leave commences. Parental Bonding Leave, when taken for adoption or foster care, could commence prior to the date of placement.

2. Duration

Parental Bonding Leave, alone, shall not exceed twelve (12) workweeks within a calendar year. However, when Parental Bonding Leave is combined with Pregnancy Disability Leave under the FMLA, the total FML shall not exceed seven (7) months in the leave year.

3. The basic minimum duration of any Parental Bonding Leave is two (2) weeks. However, the University will grant an employee's request for a Parental Bonding Leave of less than two (2) weeks duration on any two (2) occasions during the leave year. The University, at its discretion, may require that any additional leaves be taken for a minimum duration of two (2) weeks, unless otherwise required by law.

4. Review of Denials or Deferrals of FML Requests

If an employee's request for FML is denied, deferred, or otherwise provided for a period shorter than the employee's initial request, such University action may, upon the employee's written request, be reviewed by the Department Head. Neither the University's action in granting or not granting FML nor the results of such review shall be subject to Article 21, Grievance Procedure or Article 22, Arbitration Procedure, of this Agreement.

i. Military Caregiver Leave

Military Caregiver Leave is an additional type of FML available to eligible employees. An employee may take Military Caregiver Leave to care for a family member or “next of kin” who is a “covered service member” undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy for a “serious injury or illness” consistent with the definition of those items in Section i.2 below.

1. Eligibility Criteria and Duration

An eligible employee is entitled to up to twenty-six (26) weeks of Military Caregiver Leave during a single twelve (12) month leave period. The employee must be a spouse, domestic partner, parent, son, daughter or next of kin of the covered service member to be eligible for this type of leave and must meet the eligibility requirements for FML set forth in Section D. of this Article.

2. Definitions Specific to Military Caregiver Leave

a. “Covered service member” means (a) a current member of the regular Forces (including a member of the National Guard or Reserves) who, because of a “serious injury or illness” is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; is otherwise in outpatient status; or is on the temporary disability retired list, or (b) a “covered veteran” is an individual who was a member of the Armed Forces (including a member of the National Guard or the Reserves) and was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes Military Caregiver Leave to care for the covered veteran.

b) "Outpatient status" means the status of a service member assigned to (a) a military medical treatment facility as an outpatient; or (b) a unit established for the purpose of providing command and control of members of the Armed Forces receiving medical care as outpatients.

c) “Serious injury or illness” means (a) for a current member of the Armed Forces (including a member of the National Guard or Reserves): an injury illness that was incurred or aggravated by the covered service member in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces or that existed before the beginning of the covered service member’s active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces and that may render the covered service member medically unfit to perform the duties of their office, grade, rank, or rating; or (b) for a covered veteran: an injury or illness that was incurred or aggravated by the covered veteran in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces (or existed before the beginning of the member’s active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces) and manifested itself before or after the member became a veteran.

d) "Parent of a covered service member" means a covered service member’s biological, adopted, step, or foster parent or any other individual who stood in loco parentis to the covered service member. The term does not include parents “in law.”

e. “Child of a covered service member” means the covered service member’s biological, adopted, or foster child, stepchild, legal ward, or a child for whom the covered service member stood in loco parentis, and who is of any age.

f. "Next of kin" means (a) the nearest blood relative of the covered service member (other than the covered service member's spouse, domestic partner, parent, child); or (b) the person who the covered service member has designated in writing as their nearest blood relative for purposes of Military Caregiver Leave.

g. "Single twelve (12) month leave period" means the period beginning on the first day the employee takes leave to care for the covered service member and ends twelve (12) months after that date. (This leave period differs from the calendar year definition of the leave year used for determining eligibility for other types of FML at the University.)

3. Leave Entitlement

Leave is applied on a per-covered service member, per-injury basis. Eligible employees may take more than one (1) period of twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave if the leave is to care for a different covered service member or to care for the same service member with a subsequent serious injury or illness, except that no more than twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave may be taken within any "single twelve (12) month period." If an eligible employee does not use all of their twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave entitlement to care for a covered service member during this single twelve (12) month leave period, the remaining part of the twenty-six (26) workweek entitlement to care for the covered service member for that serious injury or illness is forfeited. As with other types of FML, this leave may also be taken on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis. If the need for intermittent or reduced schedule leave is foreseeable based on the planned medical treatment of the covered service member, the employee may be required to transfer temporarily, during the period that the intermittent or reduced leave schedule is required, to an available alternative position for which the employee is qualified and which better accommodates a recurring period of leave than does the employee's regular position.

4. Documentation and Certification

Employees may be required to provide a certification completed by an authorized health care provider of the covered service member that provides information necessary to establish entitlement to Military Caregiver Leave. In addition, employees may be required to provide certain information (or have the covered service member provide that information) including information establishing that the service member is a covered service member for purposes of Military Caregiver Leave, their relationship with the employee, and an estimate of the leave needed to provide the care. The employee may also be required to provide confirmation of a covered family relationship between the employee and the service member. When the covered service member is a covered veteran, the employee may be required to provide information establishing their veteran status, the date of separation from the Armed Forces, and that separation was for reasons other than dishonorable.

5. Use of Accrued Paid Leave

Military Caregiver Leave is unpaid leave, except an employee may use sick leave in accordance with Article 13, Sick Leave. An employee may also elect to use accrued compensatory time off or accrued vacation before taking leave without pay. However, if the employee's vacation leave accrual is at maximum, the employee will be required to use at least ten (10) percent of the vacation leave credit prior to taking leave without pay.

6. Advanced Notice

Whenever possible, an employee shall provide at least thirty (30) days' advance notice. If thirty (30) days' notice is not practicable, notice shall be given as soon as practicable. Failure to comply with this notice requirement may result in postponement of leave.

7. Reinstatement

Reinstatement shall be to the same position or, at the department's discretion, to an equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment provided that the employee returns to work immediately following termination of the leave. If the employee would have been laid off or terminated had the employee been working during the leave period, the employee shall be afforded the same considerations afforded to other employees who are laid off or terminated pursuant to the provisions of Article 18, Layoff and Reduction in Time.

8. Continuation of Health Benefits

An employee on an approved Military Caregiver Leave shall be entitled to continue participation in health plan coverage (medical, dental, and optical) as if on pay status during the leave.

j. Qualifying Exigency Leave

Qualifying Exigency Leave is an additional type of FML available to eligible employees. If the employee is the spouse, domestic partner, child or parent of a military member, the employee may take Qualifying Exigency Leave to attend to any "qualifying exigency" while the military member is on "covered active duty or call to covered active duty status" (or has been notified of an impending call or order to cover active duty).

1. Eligibility

An employee who is the spouse, domestic partner, child, or parent of a military member is eligible for Qualifying Exigency Leave if the employee meets the eligibility requirements for FML set forth in Section E.

2. Definitions Specific to Qualifying Exigency Leave

a. "Covered active duty or call to covered active duty status" means (1) in the case of a member of the regular Armed Forces, duty during the deployment to a foreign country or (2) in the case of a member of the Armed Forces Reserve, duty during the deployment to a foreign country under a Federal call or order to active duty in support of a contingency operation as defined by the FMLA.

b. "Qualifying exigency" is defined as any one of the following, provided that the activity relates to the covered military member's covered active duty or call to covered active duty status:

- i. Short notice deployment to address issues that arise due to the military member being notified of an impending call to covered active duty seven (7) or fewer calendar days prior to the date of deployment.
- ii. Military events and activities, including official ceremonies.

- iii. Childcare and school activities for a child of the military member who is either under age eighteen (18) or incapable of self-care.
- iv. Financial and legal arrangements to address the military member's absence or to act as the military member's representative for purposes of obtaining, arranging, or appealing military service benefits while the military member is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status, and for the ninety (90) days after the termination of the military member's covered active duty status.
- v. Counseling (provided by someone other than a health care provider) for the employee, for the military member, or for the child of the military member who is either under age eighteen (18) or incapable of self-care.
- vi. Rest and recuperation (up to fifteen (15) days of leave for each instance) to spend time with the military member who is on short-term, temporary rest and recuperation leave during deployment.
- vii. Post-deployment activities to attend ceremonies sponsored by the military for a period of ninety (90) days following termination of the military member's covered active duty and to address issues that arise from the death of the military member while on covered active duty status.
- viii. Parental care for the parent of the military member when the parent is incapable of self-care.
- ix. Additional activities related to the military member's covered active duty or call to covered active duty status when the employer and employee agree that such activity qualifies as an exigency, and agree to both the timing and duration of the leave.

c. Leave Entitlement

Eligible employees are entitled to up to twelve (12) workweeks of Qualifying Exigency leave during a calendar year. Qualifying Exigency Leave may be taken on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis.

3. Documentation and Certification

Employees may be required to provide a copy of the military member's active duty orders. Employees may also be required to provide certification of: (1) the reasons for requesting Qualified Exigency Leave, (2) the beginning and end dates of the qualifying exigency, and (3) other relevant information.

4. Use of Accrued Paid Leave

Qualified Exigency Leave is unpaid leave, except that an employee may elect to use accrued compensatory time off or accrued vacation before taking leave without pay. However, if the employee's vacation leave accrual is at maximum, the employee will be required to use at least ten (10) percent of the vacation leave credit prior to taking leave without pay.

5. Notice

The employee shall provide notice of the need for leave as soon as practicable.

6. Reinstatement

Reinstatement shall be to the same position or, at the department's discretion, to an equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment provided that the employee returns to work immediately following termination of the leave. If the employee would have been laid off or terminated had the employee been working during the leave period, the employee shall be afforded the same considerations afforded to other employees who are laid off or terminated pursuant to the provisions of Article 18, Layoff and Reduction in Time.

7. Continuation of Health Benefits

An employee on an approved Qualified Exigency Leave shall be entitled to continue participation in health plan coverage (medical, dental, and optical) as if on pay status for a period of up to twelve (12) workweeks in a calendar year.

F. Military Spouse/Domestic Partner Leave

1. An employee who is a spouse or domestic partner of a member of the Armed Forces, National Guard, or Reserves may take this leave during a "qualified leave period" when the employee's spouse or domestic partner is on leave from a period of military conflict. "Qualified leave period" means the period during which the "qualified member" is on leave from deployment during a period of military conflict. An eligible employee shall be entitled to up to a maximum of ten (10) days of unpaid leave during a qualified leave period.

2. Eligibility

To be eligible, an employee must satisfy all of the following criteria:

- a. be a spouse or domestic partner of a "qualified member" defined in F.3;
- b. perform services for the University for an average of twenty (20) or more hours per week;
- c. provide the University with notice, within two (2) business days of receiving official notice that the qualified member will be on leave from deployment, of the employee's intention to take the leave; and
- d. submit written documentation certifying that the qualified member will be on leave from deployment during the time that leave is being requested by the employee.

3. Definitions Specific to Military Spouse/Domestic Partner Leave

"Qualified member" means a person who is any of the following:

- a. a member of the Armed Forces of the United States who has been deployed during a period of military conflict to an area designated as a combat theater or combat zone by the President of the United States; or
- b. a member of the National Guard who has been deployed during a period of military conflict; or
- c. a member of the Reserves who has been deployed during a period of military conflict.
- d. "Period of military conflict" means either of the following:
 - i. A period of war declared by the United States Congress; or

- ii. A period of deployment for which a member of a reserve component is ordered to active duty, as defined in Military and Veterans Code section 395.10.

4. Substitution of Paid Leave

Military Spouse/Domestic Partner Leave is unpaid leave, except that an employee may elect to use accrued compensatory time off or accrued vacation before taking leave without pay. However, if the employee's vacation leave accrual is at maximum, the employee will be required to use at least ten (10) percent of the vacation leave credit prior to taking leave without pay.

G. Jury Duty/Grand Jury Duty

1. An employee summoned to required jury duty must provide a copy of the summons to their supervisor upon request.
2. A full-time career employee who is summoned to required jury duty service shall be granted leave with pay for actual time spent on jury service and in related travel, not to exceed the employee's normal workday and the normal workweek. Employees are required to report back to work as soon as possible after they are released from jury duty, unless there are less than two (2) hours remaining in their scheduled workday, in which case they should report to work on their next scheduled workday. Not returning in a timely manner may be considered an unexcused absence. Employees may be required to provide documentation from the court showing time served.
3. During the time an employee is responsible to the court for daytime jury duty, the University will convert the employee's usual work shift to a regular five (5) day, Monday through Friday, day shift basis.
4. A part-time employee in a career position who is summoned to required jury service shall be granted leave with pay for actual time spent on jury service and in related travel which occur during the employee's regularly scheduled hours of work.
5. An employee who serves on jury duty on a holiday observed by the University is eligible for holiday pay, but does not receive an alternate day off.

H. Witness Leave

1. When served with a subpoena which compels the employee's presence as a witness, a full-time employee in a career position on any shift or work schedule shall be granted leave with pay for actual time spent at the administrative or legal proceedings and in related travel, not to exceed the number of hours in the employee's normal workday and the employee's normal workweek.
2. A part-time employee in a career position shall be granted leave with pay for time spent at the proceedings and in related travel which occur during the employee's regularly scheduled hours of work.
3. Leave with pay shall not be granted when an employee is the plaintiff or defendant in a proceeding, is called or subpoenaed as a paid expert witness not on behalf of the University, or is called or subpoenaed because of duties for another employer.

I. Recording of Leaves

Each approved leave without pay shall be reported by submission of the appropriate payroll/personnel form. An absence is not considered an approved leave for purposes of University benefits unless this form is submitted.

ARTICLE 17 DISCIPLINE AND DISMISSAL

A. Definitions

1. Discipline

Discipline occurs when any of the following actions are taken with respect to any employee: written warning, suspension, demotion, or dismissal.

A “counseling memorandum” is a document issued to an employee that clarifies some aspect of University or department policies, procedures or expectations, and comments about the employee’s job performance. A counseling memorandum is not discipline and shall not be placed in the personnel file. Counseling memoranda not attached to formal discipline shall not be used in the grievance and arbitration procedure.

2. Demotion

A demotion is the assignment of an employee from their current position to a position in a class having a lower salary maximum, or to a position at a lower rate of pay, when such assignment is made for disciplinary reasons.

3. Dismissal

A dismissal is the termination of the employment of a non-probationary regular status employee initiated by the University for just cause.

4. Receipt of Discipline

a. Discipline shall be issued no later than ninety (90) days after the date of the alleged violation.

b. Upon written notification to the Union, the deadline to issue discipline may be extended no more than one (1) time and shall not exceed thirty (30) additional calendar days.

c. This ninety (90) day requirement will also be held in abeyance in the following circumstances:

i. Where the employee is unavailable to receive the discipline because they are in a protected leave status, or

ii. Where the allegations against the employee pertain to Sexual Violence or Sexual Harassment and need to be investigated by the Office of Prevention of Harassment and Discrimination, EEOC, or other outside agencies.

d. The ninety (90) day timeline shall begin upon the conclusion of the leave or investigation under A.4.c.

e. A copy of the discipline shall be sent to Teamsters Local 2010. The University shall also send a copy of the discipline to the Teamsters Local 2010's designated representative via email.

B. Grounds

A regular status employee may be disciplined or dismissed for just cause.

C. Notice of Intent

1. When Required

The University may discipline without prior notice of intent by written warning or suspension without pay for five (5) working days or less. The University shall provide written notice, as described in Section C.2. below, of intent to discipline by suspension without pay for more than five (5) working days, demotion, or dismissal. A copy of the Notice of Intent shall be sent to Teamsters Local 2010. The University shall also send a copy of the Notice of Intent to the to the Teamsters Local 2010's designated representative via email.

2. Issuance and Content

a. Issuance

Written Notice of Intent to suspend for more than five (5) working days without pay, demote, or dismiss shall be given to the affected employee prior to issuing the discipline. The Notice of Intent shall be delivered to the employee in person, or by USPS Certified Mail to the employee's last known home address. Such personal delivery or mailing shall be conclusively presumed to provide actual notice to the affected employee(s). It shall be the responsibility of the employee to inform the University in writing of their current home address and of any change in such address, and the information so provided shall constitute "the employee's last known home address." Whether delivery is made in person or by mail, the Notice of Intent shall contain a Proof of Service indicating the date on which the Notice of Intent was personally delivered or deposited in the United States Mail. Such date of delivery or mailing shall be the "date of issuance" of a Notice of Intent.

b. Content

1. The Notice of Intent shall inform the employee of the proposed disciplinary action and the effective date of the action;
2. provide a brief explanation of the action, and copies of all materials upon which the intent to discipline is based;
3. inform the employee of the right to respond, orally or in writing, the person to whom any response must be directed, and the fact that such response must be received by said person within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of the issuance of the notice; and
4. inform the employee of their right to representation.

D. Response to Notice

The employee, or their representative, shall be entitled to respond, either orally or in writing, to the Notice of Intent described above. Such response must be received within fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of issuance of the Notice of Intent. The employee's representative, if any, may participate in this process. After review of an employee's timely response, if any, the University shall notify the employee of any action to be taken. Such action to be taken may not include discipline more severe than that described in the Notice of Intent; however, the University may reduce such discipline without the issuance of a further Notice of Intent. A copy of the notice of the final action taken shall be sent to Teamsters Local 2010 within the next business day. The University shall also send a copy of the discipline to the Teamsters Local 2010's designated representative via email. Failure to provide such notice to Teamsters Local 2010 shall not delay the imposition of the discipline upon the employee.

E. Investigatory Interview

If an employee is asked to meet with the University during any investigatory interview that could result in the imposition of discipline on the employee, the employee shall be entitled, when they request, to have a representative present during such meeting. The right to representation shall not unduly delay the meeting.

F. Investigatory Leave

The University may place an employee on investigatory leave without prior notice in order to review or investigate allegations of conduct which, in the University's view, would warrant relieving the employee immediately from all work duties. If, upon conclusion of the investigation, neither suspension without pay nor discharge is determined by the University to be appropriate, the employee shall be paid for the leave. Investigatory leaves shall not normally exceed fifteen (15) working days, unless the investigation has not been concluded.

If a suspension without pay is determined to be the appropriate discipline, a maximum of fifteen (15) working days of the investigatory leave period may be applied to such suspension without pay.

G. Progressive Discipline

Dismissal shall be preceded by at least one (1) step of progressive discipline except in those situations in which the employee knows or reasonably should have known that the performance or conduct was unsatisfactory. Such performance or conduct may include but is not limited to dishonesty, theft or misappropriation of University property, physical violence, insubordination, acts endangering others, or other serious misconduct.

H. Unauthorized Absence/Resignation

1. If an employee fails to notify the University of their absence, such absence will be deemed to be unauthorized. If such an absence lasts five (5) consecutive, assigned workdays or more, the employee shall be considered to have voluntarily resigned and shall not be considered to have been dismissed nor disciplined by the University.

2. In the case of an unauthorized absence, the University shall provide the employee and the Union with written notification of its intent to separate them. This notification shall include the reasons for the separation, the employee's right to respond to the University within fourteen (14) calendar days, and a Proof of Service. The notification shall be sent to the employee's last known mailing address via USPS Certified Mail.

3. The employee shall have fourteen (14) calendar days from the mailing of such notice to respond to the University prior to their separation. The response may, at the option of the employee, be in writing or may be a meeting with a designated University official. The official must have the authority to effectively recommend reinstatement of the employee.

I. Removal of Disciplinary Letters

Upon request of the employee, disciplinary letters shall be removed from the employee's personnel file two (2) years from the date of the disciplinary letter during which time there has been no further discipline.

ARTICLE 18 LAYOFF AND REDUCTION IN TIME

This Article covers indefinite separation and reduction in time, temporary layoff and reduction in time, and transfer of an employee to a limited position resulting from the elimination of a career position.

A. Responsibility

1. The Department Head shall determine when indefinite or temporary layoffs are necessary due to lack of work or lack of funds. The Department Head shall minimize indefinite layoffs from career positions by first reviewing the necessity for existing limited positions within the Department. When a vacancy exists within the unit in an active career position in other classes in the Department which are at the same salary level (as determined by the salary range maximum) as the employee's current position, the Department Head shall reassign an employee scheduled for indefinite layoff to that position, provided the employee is qualified to perform the duties of that position.

2. The Department Head has the authority to lay off an employee for an indefinite period after reviewing the proposed action with the appropriate HR officer.

3. An employee scheduled for indefinite layoff from a career position shall be considered for transfer to another position within the bargaining unit for which the employee is qualified.

B. Temporary Layoff and Temporary Reduction in Time

1. Whenever a layoff or reduction in time from a career position is temporary for a specified period of one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days or less, the provisions of A.3. and C.1. through D.10 shall not apply.

2. An employee shall be given written notice of the effective date and the ending date of a temporary layoff or reduction in time. Whenever possible, the notice shall be given at least fifteen (15) calendar days prior to the effective date.

3. If an indefinite layoff or indefinite reduction in time should occur during a temporary layoff or reduction in time, the procedures for indefinite layoff or indefinite reduction in time shall be applied.

C. Indefinite Layoff and Reduction in Time

1. Indefinite layoff and reduction in time are affected by department and by class (title code). The order of indefinite layoff and reduction in time of employees in the same class within a department shall be by craft in inverse order of seniority, except that the Department Head may retain employees irrespective of seniority, who possess skills, knowledge, or abilities which are not possessed by other employees in the same class, which cannot be learned in less than 6 months, and which are necessary to perform the ongoing functions of the department. Employees in lead classifications, upon indefinite layoff or reduction in time, shall have the right to bump the least senior employee in the same craft in the department. Employees in Lead Maintenance A or Lead Maintenance B classifications, upon indefinite layoff or reduction in time, shall have the right to bump the least senior employee in the lead's most recent craft at UCSD, if any.

2. Seniority

For the purpose of this article only, seniority is determined by an employee's most recent hire date in a staff career position. Employment prior to a break in service shall not be counted. When unit employees have the same date of hire, seniority shall be determined according to alphabetical order of the last name. A break in service is any separation from employment status. In addition, a break in service occurs, effective the last day on pay status, whether or not a separation form is submitted, when an employee is off pay status for four (4) complete, consecutive calendar months without an approved leave without pay, furlough, or temporary layoff. A return to pay status from an approved leave without pay, furlough, temporary layoff, during a period of right to recall and preference for reemployment, or on the next working day following a separation is not a break in service.

3. Notice

An employee will receive at least forty-five (45) calendar days' advance written notice prior to indefinite layoff or reduction in time, whenever feasible. If less than twenty (20) calendar days' notice is granted, the employee shall receive pay in lieu of notice for each additional day the employee would have been on pay status had the employee been given twenty (20) calendar days' notice. In the event of a layoff, the affected employee shall be notified of benefit continuation and unemployment insurance processes and, in addition, a regular status employee shall be informed of the procedures for recall and preferential rehire.

D. Reemployment from Indefinite Layoff

1. Right to Recall to Layoff Department

A regular status employee who is separated or whose time is reduced because of an indefinite layoff shall be recalled to the UCSD Skilled Crafts Unit in order of seniority into any active and vacant career position for which the employee is qualified when the position is in the same class, craft and Department and at the same time or lesser percentage of time as the position held by the employee at the time of layoff. Right to recall is not extended to an employee who has not attained regular status.

2. Preference for Reemployment or Transfer in Layoff Department or Other Departments

A regular status employee who is separated or whose time is reduced because of indefinite layoff, or who has received written notice of indefinite layoff or reduction in time shall be granted preference within the UCSD Skilled Crafts Unit for reemployment or transfer to any active or vacant position for which the employee is qualified when the position is:

- a. within the bargaining unit;

- b. at the same salary level or lower (as determined by the salary range maximum); and
 - c. at the same or lesser percentage of time as the position held by the employee at the time of layoff. Preference for reemployment or transfer is not extended to an employee who has not yet attained regular status.
3. Department Heads may reject a regular status employee with preference for reemployment or transfer only if the employee lacks qualifications required of the position. Reasons for non-selection shall be provided by the Department Head in writing to the designated University official.
4. Duration of Right to Recall and Preference for Reemployment
- a. A regular status employee with less than five (5) years of seniority shall have right to recall and preference for reemployment for one (1) year from date of layoff.
 - b. An employee with at least five (5) but less than ten (10) years of seniority shall have right to recall and preference for reemployment for two (2) years from date of layoff.
 - c. An employee with ten (10) years or more of seniority shall have the right to recall and preference for reemployment for three (3) years from date of layoff. Time on unpaid status does not affect the seniority calculation.
5. An employee may be required to respond affirmatively to periodic inquiries as to the desire to continue the right to recall and preference for reemployment in order to continue that right and preference beyond one (1) year.
6. Right to recall and preference for reemployment continue during, but are not extended by, temporary periods of employment in limited positions.
7. Termination of Right to Recall and Preference
Right to recall and preference for reemployment terminates if an employee:
- a. refuses an offer to return, at the same or greater percentage of time, to the department and class from which they were laid off;
 - b. accepts a career position at the same or higher salary level and the same or greater percentage of time as the position held by the employee at the time of layoff; or
 - c. refuses two (2) offers of employment for a career position at the same or higher salary level and the same percentage of time as the position held by the employee at the time of layoff.
8. In addition, preference for reemployment terminates if an employee accepts any career position.
9. Right to recall and preference for reemployment are suspended when an employee does not respond to written notice of an employment opportunity. However, upon written request of the employee and approval of the designated University official, both recall and preference may be reinstated.
10. Service upon Reemployment

Reemployment within the period of right to recall and preference for reemployment or from temporary layoff provides continuity of service. Benefits and seniority accrue only when on pay status.

E. Other Provisions – Effect on Benefits

1. An employee on indefinite or temporary layoff may continue, if previously enrolled, in certain group insurance programs for the length of time provided by the University's Group Insurance Regulations, subject to the employee's payment of full premiums.
2. The University's contribution to the cost of a University sponsored health plan will be provided for an employee on temporary layoff or reduction in time for a maximum of three (3) months in a calendar year where the employee's earnings are insufficient to otherwise generate the University's contribution.
3. Retirement system regulations determine the effect on retirement benefits while an employee is on indefinite or temporary layoff.

ARTICLE 19
UNIT WORK

A. For the purpose of this Article, the phrase “Skilled Trades Work” includes the work traditionally performed by the classifications listed in Article 1, Recognition, and any other classifications added to the Unit.

B. Supervisors and non-unit employees will not normally perform work of unit employees. However, management reserves the right to assign supervisors or non-unit employees to perform unit work in the event of emergencies of a serious nature, developing suddenly and unexpectedly, requiring immediate action to protect property, equipment, life, safety and health, including affected research as well as under exceptional circumstances in order to meet the operational needs of the University.

Teamsters Local 2010 may raise issues at Labor Management Meetings of non- bargaining unit employees doing bargaining-unit work.

ARTICLE 20 SUBCONTRACTING

A. Management Decision

When determining whether or not to subcontract bargaining unit work, the University will consider whether said work should be performed by bargaining unit employees in-house. However, the decision to subcontract work is the prerogative of the University and Management reserves the right to subcontract unit work, including the right to continue subcontracting work which has been subcontracted in the past.

B. Provision of Information to Union

Upon written request by the Union, four (4) times per year, the University shall provide to the Union and a designated steward a summary of subcontracted work which is funded by the State of California Operations and Maintenance of Plant budget. Subcontracted work is that work which is less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in total, or painting work which is less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in total.

C. Notification to the Union

The University agrees to notify the Union at least thirty (30) calendar days in advance of its intent to subcontract any unit work which would result in the layoff of unit employees and shall meet and confer upon request regarding the effects upon the employees of said subcontracting.

D. Discussion

The University and Teamsters Local 2010 agree that any concerns the Union may have about subcontracted work as referenced in Section A above will be a standing agenda item at the parties' Labor- Management meeting pursuant to the provisions of Article 33 of this Agreement.

E. Displacement of Employees

When the University has determined to contract for services that will result in the layoff of employees in the bargaining unit, it will provide Teamsters Local 2010 with a copy of any RFP as soon as feasible after it is issued. In the event no RFP is issued and the subcontract will result in bargaining unit employee layoffs, the University will give at least 45 calendar days' notice prior to the commencement of work by the contractor.

If Teamsters Local 2010 asks to meet with the University about the proposed contract for services, such a meeting will occur as soon as practicable following the University's receipt of the request. The meeting will not delay the commencement of the contract.

F. In the event of layoffs due to subcontracting, laid off employees shall be eligible for employment through Temporary Employment Services.

ARTICLE 21
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. General Provisions

1. Definition

A grievance is a claim during the term of this Agreement that the University has violated a specific written provision(s) of this Agreement.

2. Standing

a. Except as otherwise provided in the Agreement, a grievance may be brought to the attention of the University through this procedure by an individual employee within the bargaining unit, a group of employees within the bargaining unit, or by the Union. A grievance may not be brought through this procedure by the University.

b. Grievants who voluntarily resign or retire their employment with the University shall have their pending grievances immediately withdrawn and will not benefit by any subsequent settlement or disposition of any individual or union grievance. However, if the grievance is related to compensation negotiated in a UC/ Teamsters Local 2010 Agreement, the grievance may be continued if it has been appealed to Step 2 before the date of resignation.

3. Consolidation

A grievance brought by or related to two (2) or more bargaining unit employees, and multiple grievances by or related to the same employee, which concern the same incident, issue, or course of conduct, may upon mutual agreement of the University and the Union, be consolidated for the purposes of this procedure, provided that the time limits described in this article shall not be shortened for any grievance because of the consolidation of that grievance with other grievances.

4. Representation

An employee shall have the right to be represented at all steps of the Grievance Procedure by one (1) person of the employee's choice other than a University employee who has been designated by the University as supervisory, managerial, or confidential. If the employee chooses to be represented by the Union, a steward and the Union Representative shall have the right to be present at the Step 2 grievance meeting.

5. No Reprisal

No employee shall be subject to reprisal for using or participating in the grievance procedure.

B. Procedure

1. Informal Review

As soon as practicable, the employee may discuss the grievance with their immediate supervisor and/or manager. All parties may informally attempt a resolution of the matter(s) before a formal written grievance may be filed. Informal resolutions, although final, shall not be precedent-setting. If the complaint is not resolved through informal discussion with the immediate supervisor or manager, the employee may file a formal grievance as set forth below.

2. Step 1:

- a. A matter that has not been resolved through the Informal Review process may be filed as a formal grievance at Step 1 to the Labor Relations Office. The grievance must be filed electronically via e-mail.
 - b. The designated Labor Relations Office must receive the written Step 1 grievance within (30) calendar days after the date on which either the employee or the Union knew or could be expected to know of the event or action which gave rise to the grievance or within (30) calendar days after the date of the employee's last day on pay status.
 - c. A formal grievance must be filed on a grievance form approved by the Union and the University.
 - d. The University's written response will be emailed to the employee(s) with a copy to their representative(s) and the Union at grievance@teamsters2010.org within fifteen (15) calendar days after the formal grievance is filed. If the University does not issue a Step 1 Response within the fifteen (15) calendar days, the grievance will automatically move to Step 2.
3. Step 2:
A grievance that has not been resolved at Step 1 may be appealed to Step 2 by filing a written appeal with the Labor Relations Office within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the written Step 1 response is issued.
- C. Extension
Attempts at informal resolution do not extend time limits unless a written exception is mutually agreed upon in writing by the parties.
- D. Statement of Grievance
A formal written grievance shall contain the following information:
1. The specific section and provision of the Agreement alleged to have been violated;
 2. A description of the action that caused the grievance, the date on which the action happened, and an explanation of how the Agreement was violated by the action;
 3. A description of how there has been an adverse effect on a bargaining unit employee;
and,
 4. A description of the remedy requested.
- E. Amendments
The employee and/or the Union may amend the alleged violation stated in the original grievance as needed up to, and including, the filing of the Step 2 appeal.
- F. Step 2 Grievance Meeting
Within thirty (30) calendar days of the receipt of the Step 2 Appeal, the University shall convene a meeting to discuss the grievance. The parties may mutually agree to extend the deadline for the meeting. The parties may mutually agree to waive the meeting.
- G. Step 2 Decision

The University shall render a written decision within thirty (30) calendar days following the Step 2 meeting or the date of an agreement to waive the Step 2 grievance meeting. The decision will be emailed to the employee(s) with a copy to their representative(s) and the Union at grievance@teamsters2010.org. The University's decision becomes final sixty (60) calendar days from the date of e-mail if not appealed to arbitration by the Union. A final Step 2 Decision is non-precedent setting.

The Union must file a request for arbitration within sixty (60) calendar days of the Step 2 decision email, in accordance with Article 22 – Arbitration Procedures.

H. Step 3 Mediation

1. Mediation is a process in which a mediator assists the parties in reaching a resolution of the grievance. Either party may request mediation at any time.
2. Both parties must agree to use mediation.
3. Mediation shall be non-binding, except when the parties mutually agree otherwise.
4. All costs of mediation shall be borne by both parties equally, except when the parties agree otherwise.
5. The parties may select a mediator by mutual agreement or by selecting from among a panel of mediators to be agreed upon by both parties.
6. If mediation does not result in a resolution of the grievance, the grievance shall be processed in accordance with this Agreement.
7. Reasonable release time shall be granted to the employee(s) and steward participating in the actual mediation. Employee time spent in mediation shall be considered as time worked. When such meetings are convened outside the employee's scheduled work time, no employee release time shall be granted. Time spent in preparation for mediation, on the day(s) of the mediation, shall be on pay status.

I. Time Limits

1. Time limits may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties in writing in advance of the expiration of the time limits. Deadlines which fall on a University non-business day will automatically be extended to the next business day.
2. The date and time stamp of the Union's email shall constitute the official date of submission. All deadlines for submission refer to 5:00 p.m. on a business day. Emails received after 5:00 p.m. or on a non-work day shall be considered submitted on the following business day.
3. In cases involving allegations of discrimination or harassment, the grievance will be placed in abeyance in accordance with Article 5 - Non-Discrimination unless the Union opposes the abeyance. This provision does not apply to allegations of discrimination based on union activity.

4. If a grievance is not appealed to the subsequent step of the procedure within applicable time limits, and an extension has not been agreed to in advance, the grievance will be considered settled on the basis of the last University written response.

5. Failure by the University to reply to the employee's grievance within the time limits specified automatically grants to the employee or the Union the right to process the grievance to the next level. Each of the steps in the Grievance Procedure may be waived by mutual agreement of the parties in writing.

J. Pay Status: Release Time

1. Release Time for Grievance Meetings: The grievant and/or Steward shall be granted reasonable paid release time to travel to, and participate in, meetings convened by the University and the Union to mutually resolve grievances. Requests for such release time must be made in compliance with Article 34 – Union Access, Section (H). Employee time spent at such meetings shall be considered time worked, however, it is not subject to call-back pay minimums pursuant to Article 8: Hours of Work.

2. Meeting Scheduling: When such meetings are convened outside an employee's scheduled work time, no employee release time shall be granted. When such meetings involve a graveyard shift employee, meetings will be held near or immediately after the end of their shift.

3. Release Time for Witnesses: University employees called as witnesses at such meetings shall be released from work with reasonable advance written request and granted leave with pay for reasonable time spent in meetings, if the information they provide is relevant and material to the grievance which is the subject of the meeting. In addition, they shall be granted reasonable travel time to travel to and from, and participate in such meetings. Such release requests should be made in accordance with Article 34 – Union Access, Section (H). Employee time spent at such meetings shall be considered time worked, however, it is not subject to call-back pay minimums pursuant to Article 8 - Hours of Work.

4. Release Time for Preparing Grievances: Time spent in preparation of a grievance shall not be on pay status except for release time used by Stewards in accordance with Article 32 – Union Stewards. A reasonable amount of time spent during scheduled work hours in investigation of a grievance prior to formal filing shall be granted on pay status, subject to notice and approval of the employee(s)' supervisor.

K. Notification to the Union

Informal resolution may be agreed upon at any stage of the grievance process. Prior to the resolution of any formal grievance in the Skilled Crafts bargaining unit, the Union shall be notified.

ARTICLE 22
ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

A. Request for Arbitration

A request for arbitration may be made only by the Union, and only after receipt of the Step 2 decision, or within sixty (60) calendar days after the date on which the Step 2 decision is due, or within sixty (60) calendar days after the date on which there was an agreement to waive the Step 2 grievance meeting. The request for arbitration must be received by the designated University official via e-mail to the address designated by the University. If a request is received after 5 pm, the first following business day will be deemed the filing date. The University will confirm receipt of the request for arbitration to the Union by the next business day.

B. Selection of Arbitrators and Hearing Scheduling

1. Within thirty (30) calendar days of a request for arbitration, the parties shall select an arbitrator. The parties may mutually agree to select any qualified and available arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator, they shall take turns striking names from the following list in order to select an arbitrator. The first strike will be determined by a coin flip, and the last name remaining shall be the arbitrator.

- a. Anthony Giorgio
- b. Sara Adler
- c. Terri Tucker
- d. Jan Stiglitz
- e. Jill Klein
- f. Frederick Horowitz
- g. Paul Roose
- h. Kathy Fragnoli
- i. Anthony Miller
- j. Dan Saling
- k. Robin Matt
- l. John Duffy
- m. Najeeb Khoury

2. Should the parties be unable to agree to a hearing date, the authority to schedule the hearing rests with the arbitrator.

3. The parties will attempt to agree on a location for the arbitration hearing. Arbitrations may be held remotely using virtual platforms. If there is no agreement by the parties, the decision on the location/mode shall be made by the arbitrator and shall be final.

C. Arbitration Procedure

1. The arbitration proceeding shall provide an opportunity for the parties to examine and cross-examine witnesses under oath and to submit relevant evidence. At least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the hearing, the parties shall exchange relevant documentary evidence and the names of the witnesses who will be called to testify at the hearing.

2. The arbitrator shall not have the authority to admit settlement offers as evidence at the arbitration hearing.
3. Prior to the arbitration, the parties shall attempt to stipulate to the issue(s) to be arbitrated and to as many facts as possible.
4. The parties can settle a case at any time.
5. The arbitration hearing shall be closed to the public unless the parties otherwise agree in writing.
6. The arbitrator, following the close of the record of the hearing, shall consider the evidence presented and render a written decision. The written decision shall include a description of each issue under submission, the position of the parties, the findings of fact, the arbitrator's conclusion(s) as to the violation of the Agreement, and where appropriate, a remedy.

D. The Arbitrator's Role

1. The arbitrator shall be limited to interpreting the written provisions of the Agreement regarding the alleged violation of the Agreement, as described in the formal written grievance or as agreed to by both parties. The arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, delete from, or otherwise alter the terms of the Agreement. The arbitrator shall have no authority to decide a grievance or request for arbitration which was not received by the University within the time limits set forth in this Agreement, except when both parties agree otherwise. The arbitrator shall have no authority to decide issues not specifically identified by the Union up through, and including, the filing of the formal Step 2 Grievance. The arbitrator shall consider the evidence presented and render a written decision within (30) calendar days of the close of the record of the hearing.
 - a. The arbitrator shall have the authority to subpoena documents and to require the attendance of witnesses upon the reasonable request of either party but not upon the arbitrator's own motion.
 - b. The expense of service and appearance fees, if any, shall be borne entirely by the party requesting the subpoena of witnesses and each party shall, in advance of the hearing date, inform the other party of the identity of witnesses it subpoenaed.
2. The University shall inform the Union in writing of its intent to assert the issue of arbitrability prior to the selection of the arbitrator. The issue(s) of arbitrability shall be resolved in a hearing prior to and separate from the hearing about the substantive facts and/or allegations in dispute. In such a case, the parties shall use the selection process described in Section B above, to select two arbitrators. The first arbitrator will be selected to hear the issues of arbitrability and the second arbitrator will be selected to decide the merits of the case if the issues are determined to be arbitrable. The arbitrator hearing the arbitrability question shall issue a bench decision upon completion of the arbitrability hearing unless the arbitrator determines the evidence presented at the hearing requires additional review and a written decision is more appropriate. In the event that the first arbitrator, as a result of the arbitrability hearing referenced above determines a matter to be arbitrable, the first arbitrator shall have no authority to decide the issues pursuant to the merits of the case. If the matter is determined to be arbitrable, a hearing on the merits of the case will be scheduled with the second arbitrator, unless the parties agree otherwise.

3. Section D.2. above, shall not prevent the parties from agreeing in writing to combine the arbitrability hearings with the hearing on the merits of the case or from agreeing to separate hearings on arbitrability and the merits of the case before a single arbitrator.

E. Arbitration Costs

1. The arbitrator's fees shall be borne equally by the parties. Expenses for stenographic or other services or facilities shall be borne equally by the parties.

2. In the event either party requests the cancellation or postponement of a scheduled arbitration proceeding which causes an arbitrator to impose a cancellation or postponement fee, the party requesting such cancellation or postponement shall bear the full cost of the cancellation/postponement fee. In the event the parties agree to settle or postpone the arbitration during the period of time in which the arbitrator will charge a cancellation/postponement fee, the parties will equally bear the cost of the fee, unless the parties agree otherwise.

F. Arbitrator's Decision and Remedy

1. The arbitrator shall not have the authority to award a remedy that exceeds restoring to the employee the pay, benefits, or rights lost as a result of a violation of the Agreement, less any compensation and benefits received from any source, including, but not limited to, Worker's Compensation and Unemployment Insurance benefits. The decision of the arbitrator, within the limits described herein, shall be final and binding.

2. The arbitrator shall have no authority to award back wages or other monetary reimbursement nor shall the University be liable on a grievance claiming back wages or other monetary reimbursement for:

a. any period of time during which an extension of time limits has been granted by the University at the request of the Union; or

b. any period of time between the date a hearing was originally scheduled to be held and, due to a request from the Union to postpone or change the scheduled hearing, or the rescheduled date of the hearing; or

c. any period of time greater than forty-five (45) calendar days prior to the date of the Informal Review, Step 1 of the Grievance Procedure.

The availability of the bargaining unit employee to participate in an inspection shall be determined by his/her immediate supervisor on the basis of operational needs; however, participation by Teamsters Local 2010 requested employees shall not be unreasonably denied.

Employee time spent on participation in inspections shall be considered time worked, except that time spent outside of an employee's scheduled work time shall not be considered time worked. A. Employees who are or become unable to perform essential, assigned functions fully, with or without reasonable accommodations, due to disabilities or other medical conditions, may be separated following exhaustion of the interactive process. Employees separated under this Article who had attained regular status are eligible for special reemployment procedures.

B. Basis for Separation

1. A medical separation shall be based on:
 - a. a statement by the Department Head describing the essential functions the employee is unable to perform, with or without reasonable accommodations, after exhaustion of the interactive process; and
 - b. a review by the appropriate UC San Diego Campus Disability Counseling and Consulting or UC San Diego Health Disability Management.

3. A medical separation shall be effected by the Department Head after review and agreement by the appropriate HR officer.

C. Notices

1. The employee must express interest and must provide documentation from a licensed health care provider that establishes that the former employee has been medically released to return to work, with or without reasonable accommodation. Additionally, if the former employee is receiving disability benefits from a retirement system to which the University contributes, the period shall be three (3) years from the date benefits commenced. During such periods, an employee shall be given assistance in accordance with Article 31 - Reasonable Accommodation/Rehabilitation.
- E. Service Upon Reemployment
- If a regular status employee separated under this Article is reemployed within the bargaining unit as stated in section D, within the allowed period, a break in service does not occur.

ARTICLE 30 WORK-INCURRED INJURY OR ILLNESS

- A. This Article sets forth the application of sick leave and vacation for employees who are unable to work due to a work-incurred injury or illness compensable under the California Workers' Compensation Act, and provides extended sick leave for such employees when sick leave is exhausted and when employees are still unable to work because of such injury or illness.
1. An employee who is unable to work due to a work-incurred injury or illness compensable under the California's Workers' Compensation Act may be granted leave for the duration of a verified disability. An employee's placement in a temporary position pursuant to Section H: Light Duty below shall not count against such leave. The leave shall not exceed six (6) months, except that the employee may request an extension of the leave, which shall not be unreasonably denied.

2. Workers' compensation leave may run concurrently with unpaid FMLA leave and may count toward an employee's FMLA leave entitlement, provided the reason for the absence is due to a qualifying "serious health condition" as defined in the FMLA.

3. An approved leave of absence for work-incurred illness or injuries shall not be considered a break in service.

4. Employees who are unable to work due to a work-incurred injury or illness compensable under the California Workers' Compensation Act are eligible to use accrued sick leave and vacation as provided below. When sick leave is exhausted and when employees are still unable to work because of such illness or injury, employees may use extended sick leave or leave without pay as provided below.

5. An employee shall notify his or her supervisor of the need for leave for a work-incurred injury or illness, or any extension of such leave, as soon as practicable after the need for such leave or extension is known. This notification shall include written medical certification of the need for such leave or extension, and the anticipated return to work date.

B. Use of Accrued Sick Leave and Vacation

An employee who accrues sick leave and vacation shall be permitted to use accrued sick leave and vacation to supplement temporary disability payments received under the California Workers' Compensation Act.

C. Sick leave and vacation payments shall be the difference between the amount payable to the employee under the Workers' Compensation Act and the employee's regular salary. The additional payment made to an employee to provide the employee with the full salary prior to receipt of disability payments shall be deemed an advance temporary disability payment within the Workers' Compensation Act.

D. An employee who receives advance temporary disability payment shall reimburse the University for such payment. The reimbursement is used to restore proportionate sick leave and vacation credit as appropriate.

E. Extended Sick Leave

1. An employee who is receiving temporary disability payments and who has exhausted all accrued sick leave shall receive extended sick leave payments from the University in an amount equal to the difference between the payments from Workers' Compensation and eighty (80) percent of the basic salary plus any shift differential which the employee would have received. If such an employee returns to part-time University duties, the earnings plus any temporary disability payments, if less than eighty (80) percent of basic salary plus shift differential, shall be supplemented to eighty (80) percent by extended sick leave payments, provided the employee continues to be medically authorized for Workers' Compensation temporary disability. Total extended sick leave payments shall not exceed twenty-six (26) weeks for any one injury or illness.

2. An eligible employee who does not have sufficient sick leave to cover the three (3) calendar days, waiting period for receiving Workers' Compensation payments shall receive extended sick leave payment to cover any part of the waiting period not covered by sick leave. Payment shall be made only after determination that the injury or illness is compensable under Workers' Compensation.

3. An employee who elects not to use all sick leave is not eligible for extended sick leave benefits.

F. Supplemental Leave

An employee who is receiving temporary disability payments and supplemental sick leave or vacation as described in Sections B.-D. above, is considered on regular pay status, except for completion of the probationary period. Sick leave and vacation accrued during this period may be used as soon as they accrue.

G. Return from Work Incurred Injury or Illness

1. Prior to returning to work, an employee granted a work-incurred injury or illness leave must provide the University with a statement from his or her licensed health care practitioner of the employee's ability to return to work. An employee granted a work-incurred injury or illness leave shall provide the University with notice of his or her ability to return to work promptly after learning of the date of return. If a return to work specifies restrictions, the University will, in accordance with applicable law, reasonably accommodate the employees.
2. If the position held has been abolished during the leave, the employee shall be afforded the same considerations which would have been afforded had that employee been on pay status when the position was abolished.

Light Duty

3. Pursuant to the provisions of Article 31, Reasonable Accommodation and applicable law, the University may place an employee in a temporary assignment consistent with documented medical restrictions when the employee has experienced work-related injuries. Such assignments will be identified in a good faith effort through the interactive process involving the injured employee and the employee's supervisor. This section will not be construed as a guarantee of a specific form of accommodation.
4. If any section of this Article conflicts with applicable law, the University will comply with applicable law.

ARTICLE 31 REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

A. General Provisions

In a manner that is consistent with applicable law, the University will provide a reasonable accommodation to qualified employees with a disability, or who become disabled and need assistance to perform the essential functions of their jobs. This section shall not be construed as a guarantee of a specific form of accommodation nor shall accommodation in one case establish a precedent for similar or dissimilar circumstances, since all accommodations will be designed specific to the functional abilities of the employee in coordination with the requirements of the job. The interactive process shall be used to determine what, if any, reasonable accommodation will be made.

B. Reasonable Accommodation

An employee with a disability, or who becomes disabled shall be informed of available options for reasonable accommodation and the University's disability accommodation procedures.

C. The Interactive Process

1. The interactive process is an ongoing dialogue between the employee and appropriate representatives of the University about possible options for reasonably accommodating the employee's disability. Options may include, but are not limited to: a modified work schedule; a leave of absence; modified equipment; assistive devices; modification of existing facilities; restructuring the job; and reassignment. Both the University and the employee are expected to participate in the interactive process in good faith, which includes engaging in timely communications regarding possible reasonable accommodation.
2. During the interactive process, the University considers information related to: the essential functions of the job; the employee's functional limitations; possible accommodations; the reasonableness of possible accommodations; and implementation of reasonable accommodation. This information will be used by the University to determine what, if any, reasonable accommodation will be made. While the University will consider the employee's suggestions regarding which accommodation(s) to implement, the University will determine which accommodation(s) will be implemented.

The University will not implement an accommodation that would present an undue hardship.

3. If necessary, a similar analysis for accommodation shall be conducted of other open positions for which the employee has applied and is otherwise qualified. If requested, a copy of the job analysis will be provided to the employee and Union, if authorized by the employee.
4. Upon request by the employee, an employee's representative shall participate in the interactive process.
5. University-wide and local procedures provide further guidance on the implementation of the interactive process.

D. Medical Documentation
